

Phone numbers are area code 937 unless otherwise noted.

Farmers Markets in Greene County

Fairborn Farmers Market

Fifth Third Commons (corner of Main and Grand), Fairborn

Each Wed. 10-2, Apr. through Nov.

City of Fairborn Parks & Recreation, 754-3090 parks@ci.fairborn.oh.us

Greene County Farmers Markets

All June through Oct.

Bob Irvin, 675-4071

Xenia: Tues., 2-6, K-Mart at W. Main St. downtown

Fairborn: Thurs., 2-6, Premier Fitness, 27 W. Dayton-Yellow Springs Rd.

Beavercreek: Sat. 8:30-12:30, K-Mart at Indian Ripple Road just off I-675

Sugarcreek Twp Farmers Market

6134 Wilmington Pike in Sugarcreek Plaza, Dayton

Each Fri. 15 May through Nov., 3-7pm

Winter market Dec. through Apr., 3-5pm

Cara Tilford, 848-8426, ctilford@sugarcreektownship.com

Yellow Springs Farmers Market

Walnut St. parking lot, rear of King's Yard, Yellow Springs

Sat., 7-Noon, Apr. through Nov.

Michelle Burns, 319-6076: micheleburns409@yahoo.com10

Yellow Springs Winter Farmers Market

227 Xenia Ave., Yellow Springs (YS Senior Center)

Sat., 8:30-11:30, Jan. 3 through Mar. 24

767-7560

Yellow Springs South Town Farmers Market

Dollar General parking lot, Rte. 68, Yellow Springs

Thurs., 3-6, May-Oct.

Contact No Common Scents at 767-4261

Greene County Farm Markets

Anderson Farm Market

1240 Clifton Rd., Xenia

June to Oct.; Mon.-Sat., 10-6 and Yellow Springs Farmers Market (Sat.)

Doug Anderson, 767-7626, andersonfarmmarket@gmail.com

Locally raised pork products, hormone and antibiotic-free. Also sold by the side and whole for the freezer. Berries, fruits, and vegetables in season.

Apple Country Farm Market

2323 U.S. Rt. 42, Spring Valley

May-Nov., Mon.-Sat. 10-6:30 and Sun. 12-5; in Nov./Dec., call first

Dale Hagler, 750-7501, applecountry@sbcglobal.net

www.applecountryfarm.com

Mums, 18 varieties of apples plus peaches and cherries, vegetables, pumpkins, corn maze Sep. 1-Nov. 1, hayrides, straw bales, Fall Festival events, call for group information. Also Christmas trees, honey, jams/jellies, maple syrup. Apr.-June: garden plants and seeds.

Berry Hill Farm

You pick, we pick

330 E. Krepps Rd., Xenia

Generally July through Oct.

376-1373, berryhill10@yahoo.com; www.berryhillfarm.biz

Raspberries, blackberries, blueberries, melons, homemade jams/jellies.

Bob Irvin Honey

4087 Rt. 35, Jamestown

675-4071, 581-4087

Available at the 2nd Street Public Market, and Greene County Farmers Markets in Xenia, Beavercreek, and Fairborn. Honey, maple syrup, sorghum, jam, and some produce.

Brewer and Sons Farm

Beavercreek, OH

brewerandsonsfarm@yahoo.com

Honey, pastured poultry. Email for info.

Flying Mouse Farms

100 Yellow Springs-Fairfield Rd., Yellow Springs

Michele Burns and John DeWine, 319-6076

flyingmousefarms@yahoo.com

We grow over 100 varieties of certified organic vegetables and fruits including mushrooms, raspberries and apples, and produce 100% pure maple syrup. Our family farm is a year-round operation providing fresh produce to our community all year long. Please visit us at the King's Yard Farmers Market in Yellow Springs Apr. - Nov., or the Oakwood Farmers Market June -Sep., and the Yellow Springs Winter Market Jan. - Apr.21

The Homestead Berry Farm

5427 West Enon Rd., Fairborn

864-1279.

Red and Autumn Raspberries. Minimizes chemical/pesticide use

In mid July, red raspberries are ready to pick and run for about 3 to 4 weeks; picking dates and times are dependent on the weather and berry plant production. Please call first or check the Facebook page.

Jackson's Farm Market

2931 U.S. Rt. 68 South, Xenia (7 miles south of Xenia)

May-Oct.: Mon.-Sat., 9 -7; Sun., noon-6

Tom Jackson, 376-1778

U-pick strawberries usually late May to mid-June. Fruits and vegetables: apples, beans, black raspberries, blackberries, cabbage, cantaloupe, cherries, cucumbers, eggplant, grapes, lettuce, melons, onions, peaches, pears, plums, potatoes, pumpkins, red raspberries, rhubarb, squash, sweet corn, tomatoes, watermelon, zucchini. Also, candies, homemade noodles, baked goods, cider, honey, jams and jellies, and maple syrup.

Morgan Farm

1308 S. Maple Ave., Fairborn

Juanita Morgan, 878-4950

Eggs, straw.

New Liberty Farms

Grow local. Eat well. Live free.

6840 Mosier Rd., Yellow Springs

Kathleen Boutis, 717-5797

Pastured poultry, eggs, and more. Products sold at Tom's Market in Yellow Springs or directly from the farm.

Orion Organic Farming

Certified Organic grower of vegetables since 2003

400 N. Enon Rd., Yellow Springs

Megan Rion 307-4166

Yellow Springs Farmers Market

Paulus Butcher Shop and Country Market

1476 N. Broad St., Fairborn

Paulus Family, 878-6781

Mon.-Fri., 9-6; Sat. 9-4

Local all natural beef, fresh pork and chicken, smoked meats, fresh local produce and baked goods

Peach Mountain Organics

Certified organic since 1992

1560 Richland Rd., Spring Valley

Leslie Garcia & Doug Seibert, 862-5259

Yellow Springs Farmers Market

We raise certified organic vegetables, herbs, cut flowers, as well as herbs and vegetable plants.

Peifer Orchards

4590 U.S. 68 N., Yellow Springs (1/2 mile north of village)

Mon.-Fri., 10-6; Sat., 10-5; Sun. 12-5

767-2208 or www.peiferorchards.com

Apples, cider, peaches, pumpkins, berries, popcorn, honey, soap, and other gift items, set in a large restored barn. A great place to taste different apple varieties!

White Mountain Honey Farm

1361 Lewis Rd., Xenia

Lisa and Jeff Wilson, 286-0980

Local honey, soaps, lotions, and lip balm. Beaver Creek, Fairborn, Xenia and Yellow Springs Farmers Markets.

Products available at Health Foods Unlimited near the Dayton Mall.