NEITHER OBLIGOR NOR OBLIGEE HAS GROUP HEALTH INSURANCE AVAILABLE AT A REASONABLE COST

The child support Obligee is rebuttably presumed to be the health insurance Obligor. For purposes of this Order, _____ is the Child Support Obligee and Health Insurance Obligor.

The Court has determined that the presumption has been rebutted after determining that _____.
Therefore, for purposes of this Order, _____ is the Child Support Obligor and Health Insurance Obligor.

The Obligor and Obligee are both liable for the health care of the children who are not covered under private health insurance or cash medical support as calculated in accordance with ORC 3119.022 or 3119.023, as applicable. [ORC 3119.30(A)]. The Court finds that health insurance for the dependent child(ren) is not available to either party at a reasonable cost.

In accordance with O.R.C. 3119.30 or 3119.32, the Child Support Obligor shall pay _____% and the Child Support Obligee shall pay _____% of the extraordinary medical expenses incurred for a child during a calendar year that exceeds the total cash medical support amount owed by the parents during that year. Extraordinary medical expenses include expenses incurred for orthodontia, dental, optical, and psychological services. The parent incurring uninsured medical expenses shall provide the other parent with a copy of all medical bills, and amounts paid, for the minor child(ren) on a quarterly basis.
